U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 COURT CLERK: Today is Tuesday, October
2 9th, 2012, the time is 11:07 A.M., the case is United 3 States of America versus Ronald Ferraro, case number 4 09-CR-467. We are here today for a sentencing. May we 5 have appearances for the record, please.

6 MR. GARDNER: Daniel Gardner on behalf of 7 the government, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Good morning.

9 MR. WOLF: Robert Wolf for Ronald Ferraro
10 to my right. Good morning.

11 THE COURT: Good morning. Good morning, 12 Mr. Wolf. Mr. Wolf, we here for sentencing. Are you and 13 your client prepared to proceed?

14 MR. WOLF: Yes, we are.

15 THE COURT: Very well. Counsel, have you
16 received a Pre-Sentence Report which was dated August 8th
17 of this -- 2011, and addendum dated October 4th of 2011, 18 and a second addendum which was dated October 2nd, 2012?
19 Did the government receive those documents?

20 MR. GARDNER: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Wolf, did you receive 22 those documents?

23 MR. WOLF: Yes, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Have you had an opportunity to 25 share them with your client?

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 MR. WOLF: I have, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Very well. Court received a
3 number of different letters on behalf of Mr. Ferraro and 4 I'm going to list those documents for the record.

5 Received a letter from a Vincent Cigna; a 6 letter from a Janet Ferraro; a letter from Arlene Simon, 7 R.N.; a letter from a Reverend Brenda S. Overfield; a 8 letter from a Ben Blatt; a letter from Michael Dean; a 9 letter Kevin Loughran; a letter from Jane Loughran; a 10 letter from James Varriale I believe is how you say it; a 11 letter from Ciro Ciccarella, M.D.; a letter from 12 Elizabeth Henry; a letter from -- Court received this 13 morning a letter from Mr. Ferraro himself, a letter from 14 Andrea Reeves on behalf of Mr. Ferraro.

15 Government received copies of those 16 documents?

17 MR. GARDNER: I believe I have all those 18 documents, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Very well. Counsel, any 20 objections to the fact as stated in the Pre-Sentence
21 Report? For the government?

22 MR. GARDNER: No, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Wolf?

24 MR. WOLF: Two minor corrections. One,
25 paragraph 30 lists Mr. Ferraro's father's age as 57, he

1 passed, he was 52 years old, and paragraph 40 of the 2 Pre-Sentence Report indicates that he worked for his 3 father from 2005 to 2007. I think that's perhaps 4 referring to full-time work. He worked for his father
5 from age 16 through high school and through college 6 continuously.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. WOLF: Those are the only corrections.

9 THE COURT: Other than those corrections,
10 Mr. Wolf, any objections to the facts?

11 MR. WOLF: No, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Very well. Any objections to 13 the offense level calculation in the Pre-Sentence Report?
14 For the government?

15 MR. GARDNER: No, sir.

16 MR. WOLF: No, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: How about the criminal history
18 computation? Government have any objection?

19 MR. GARDNER: No, sir.

20 MR. WOLF: No, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Very well. Mr. Gardner, on 22 behalf of the government, go ahead, sir.

23 MR. GARDNER: Your Honor, the government --
24 unless the Court has any particular issues or concerns, 25 government will rest on its papers.

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 THE COURT: The only thing I would 2 appreciate for the record --

3 MR. GARDNER: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: In your memorandum you
5 submitted to the Court you objected to the offense level 6 calculations with regards to safety-valve eligible.

7 MR. GARDNER: Your Honor --

8 THE COURT: My understanding that you're 9 going to withdraw that objection; is that correct?

10 MR. GARDNER: That's correct, your Honor.
11 At this time the government believes all the aspects of 12 safety valve have been met, and the defendant is now 13 eligible for safety valve.

14 THE COURT: So you don't have any 15 objection to the guideline range of 18 to 24 months?

16 MR. GARDNER: No, sir.

17 THE COURT: Very well. Thank you.
18 Mr. Wolf, on behalf of your client?

19 MR. WOLF: Yes, your Honor. If Your Honor 20 please, this is a very difficult and unique case, of 21 course, every case stands on its own facts and 22 circumstances. Every individual is different than all 23 others.

24 In my 30 years of practice I have come 25 across individuals that have had an affect on me both as

Lisa L. Tennyson, CSR, RMR, FCRR
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT - NDNY

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 a lawyer and as a human being. When I say over a period 2 of time, an extensive period of time it's necessary to 3 make those judgments. Certain quality traits that are 4 consistent in your own experience and then when you 5 learn, as I have, you know, through the letters and 6 family members and friends and all the -- written to the 7 Court, and who I have spoken with and who quite 8 impressingly have come to court today, taking off from 9 their jobs and 20 friends and family -- majority 10 friends -- here to show their support for Mr. Ferraro, 11 but I'd like to point out, your Honor, what -- what that,
12 I respectfully submit, signifies.

13 Your Honor is on the bench and sees cases 14 all the time. Your Honor, former prosecutor, there are 15 individuals who, I submit, are criminals who spend every 16 day of their life or a good part of it in the course of 17 their conduct committing crimes, scheming, cheating, 18 figuring out ways to conduct a life of dishonesty, all of 19 which runs afoul of the law and then there are other 20 people like Mr. Ferraro, okay, who have previously had an 21 unblemished record, no contact at all with the criminal 22 justice system, was on the right track, went to high 23 school, college, was brought up in a certain way, brought 24 up the right way, in the shadow of his father and then 25 made a serious mistake, which of course is a serious

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 crime and that's why he's here today. He accepts full 2 responsibility for it, your Honor; he blames no one.
3 While it's tragic that his father died and all of this 4 occurred at a certain point in time, it's not an excuse, 5 any way, shape or form nor does Mr. Ferraro claim for one 6 second that's there any excuse for his conduct; he 7 accepts full responsibility for it.

8 More importantly, he has demonstrated not 9 just with words as acceptance of responsibility, but I 10 respectfully submit with his actions two things, your 11 Honor, can come now, from both the letters written to the 12 Court and Mr. Ferraro's own conduct, which I respectfully 13 submit speaks volumes and also I would submit it's 14 consistent with the holdings and the teachings of Gold 15 versus United States, the United States Supreme Court's 16 decision upholding a sentence of probation in the face of 17 a Guideline range of 30 to 37 months in the Pre-Sentence 18 Report.

19 With the Court stating any term of 20 imprisonment in this case would be counter-effective by 21 depriving society of the contributions of the defendant 22 who the Court has found understand the consequences of 23 his criminal conduct and is doing everything in his power 24 to forge a new life, the defendant's post-offense conduct 25 indicates neither that he will return to criminal

Lisa L. Tennyson, CSR, RMR, FCRR
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT - NDNY

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 behavior nor that the defendant is a danger to society.
2 In fact, the defendant's post-offense conduct was not 3 motivated by a desire to please the Court or any other 4 government agency or the direction of -- of any 5 governmental agency but was the product of the 6 defendant's own desire to lead a better life."

7 I submit, your Honor, that speaks exactly 8 to the type of person that Mr. Ferraro is and what he's 9 done before this one-time serious mistake in his life and 10 what he demonstrates by his work ethic following the 11 footsteps of his father, working through high school and 12 through college for the father's business of countertops, 13 short service stop is what it's called.

14 When his father passed away,
15 notwithstanding the tragedy that befell upon his family, 16 rather than -- as his letter indicates, rather than just 17 fall into despair as he was crushed like every other 18 member, Mr. Ferraro stepped up to the plate and continued 19 working, forming a furniture store and then thereafter, 20 your Honor, going back into the granite business that he 21 was in for his entirety.

22 I get back to the people that are in the 23 court, your Honor, and what I said about -- there are 24 criminals and then there are those who commit serious 25 mistakes, crimes like this case. People don't write

Lisa L. Tennyson, CSR, RMR, FCRR
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT - NDNY

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 letters to the Court that say what they say in this case.
2 I respectfully submit community, the friends and the 3 family don't show up for -- to court, take in the numbers
4 and the amount that's here today, coming up from eastern 5 Long Island all the way up to Albany today.

6 This is my experience, I submit,
7 practicing 30 years, family always comes, family will 8 come, you know, most respectfully for the worst offender.
9 But when the community speaks, the community speaks like 10 they do today in court and in the letters that are 11 written by various people who in their words describe his 12 actions, I find in his actions the way I read, your 13 Honor, is that someone is -- has led a selfless life up 14 until a certain point where he's done all the right 15 things, engaged in not only leading by example, following 16 his father's footsteps, but by -- in some respects, 17 giving for the sake of giving.

18 As you read the letter, your Honor, and 19 one in particular by Miss Calderaro, the school teacher 20 that was living in the Ferraro home and she commented how 21 he did several things that he didn't have to do for her 22 and for her family. He noted at the very end he did this 23 on his own, there was no reason for him to do it other 24 than that he wanted to do something and didn't have -- 25 had no obligation whatsoever, took it upon himself to do

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 the right thing, giving for the sake of giving, your 2 Honor. There is nothing better as a quality in people
3 and I see that as Mr. Ferraro's life before this offense, 4 okay, and then after this offense. He's lived in his 5 father's shadow, his father passed away at a young age, 6 he made this serious mistake but he's used this, this 7 case, this mistake, okay, to create an opportunity for 8 himself to get right back on track and now lead the way
9 his father had led all those years.

10 We sit here today, your Honor, almost 11 three and a half years after this offense was committed.
12 So we have a significant amount of time that has passed 13 that I submit you can look at Mr. Ferraro today and see 14 clearly that he is not the person today who committed 15 this offense over three years ago and he is not that -- 16 he has not been that person for his entire life but for 17 that period of time when he made this mistake. He's now 18 standing here in front of the people who mean so much to 19 him -- his fiancée, his mother.

20 I will point out, your Honor, that as 21 you've read, he and his brothers of course mean so much 22 to his mother, who is now a widowed mother, and they are 23 there to help their mother but they have let down their 24 mother and he has let down his mother and he's shamed his 25 father's memory. That's what I say created the

Lisa L. Tennyson, CSR, RMR, FCRR
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT - NDNY

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 opportunity for Mr. Ferraro, say I'm going to go forward 2 okay and I'm going to make my father's memory proud and 3 act like my father and be like my father and that's all 4 he's done, your Honor, since the time of the offense.
5 That's all he's done. Go right back into the business, 6 form a business, build a business, build a second 7 business, related to the same -- one that, of course, 8 involves the -- the environment and I could tell Your 9 Honor and -- and I have seen pictures where they 10 literally take dumpsters, what would otherwise be 11 thrown-away pieces of granite from jobs that have been 12 completed and they take those waste products and make 13 them into new pavers that are used on jobs.

14 That's the nature of their -- of their 15 recycling method and rather than these companies paying 16 to have their trash or their extra marble and granite 17 hauled away, Mr. Ferraro and his companies, companies 18 being he himself, this is the Greenwich Green Company, he 19 himself, and his brother and four employees comprise that 20 company and eight employees comprise the Bella Granite 21 Company.

22 I will point out and I will get back to 23 his fiancée in a moment -- there are workers, okay, in -- 24 in the Bella -- both companies -- who have come to court 25 today to show their support for Mr. Ferraro. That is the

Lisa L. Tennyson, CSR, RMR, FCRR
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT - NDNY

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 effect that he's had on people and, again, your Honor, I
2 emphasize that it's not by words, it's not by some song
3 and dance to convince people that -- in a moment please 4 help me. This is who I am, this is what I promise to do.
5 Words mean nothing. It's all that he's done and his 6 actions that speak volumes.

7 His fiancée, your Honor, her mother passed
8 away a few years ago at the age of 42. Okay. Her father
9 passed away approximately a month ago at the age of 52; I 10 know you read her letter this morning. Okay. She looks 11 at Ronald as the rock that's going to support her in the 12 future.

13 She does indicate, your Honor, something
14 in the letter that I think both bears very well on Mr.
15 Ferraro and her. They have taken the responsible 16 approach of course. While Miss Reeves wants to have a 17 baby and get pregnant, okay, responsibly of course, they 18 have done nothing pending the outcome of today's 19 proceedings, okay, wouldn't be -- it would be 20 irresponsible, okay, in the worst degree for a family to 21 have begun only to have a father be separated by 22 custodial sentence, okay, or worse yet, to leave a 23 pregnant wife or fiancée behind. No way, no how is that 24 going to happen with these people. Ultimate respect for 25 the system.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT - NDNY

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 I spoke of my own experience, your Honor, 2 when my mother passed away June of last year. Ron and 3 his brother Matt both came to my house to pay respects to 4 my father and my family and also provided the largest 5 fruit platter I had ever seen. In the midst of all of 6 this sorrow and all the outpouring of support for my 7 family I remember that vividly, and I also remember that 8 not only did they come to my family but Mr. Ferraro 9 through -- a few summers ago offered my oldest son, who 10 is now a sophomore in college, a summer job at Bella
11 Granite and my son worked there day in and day out, and a 12 job as a laborer, hard work, and although he would never 13 admit it to me, I always felt Ron had -- although no 14 obligation to -- had created this position just so my son 15 could have a job.

16 But I tell you, your Honor, that -- as you
17 could appreciate this, and provide the most valuable 18 lesson that my son could ever have a life to learn how to 19 perform an honest day's work. He went there early in the 20 morning, worked until the end of the day's hard work, he 21 did it day in and day out, it's how I was brought up, in 22 a family working in the corporate business installing 23 carpet. It was invaluable to my son who had no 24 experiences before he went to college.

25 Just like that, he literally did right

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1     until he left to become a freshman at the University of 2     Tampa last year. It speaks, again -- your Honor, I'm 3     doing this 30 years, I haven't had clients offered jobs
4     to my -- I haven't had the ability to observe from close 5     and afar someone like Mr. Ferraro.

6                     Your Honor, the Supreme Court upholding 7     the Gall sentence stated this District Court quite 8     reasonably attaches great weight to goals, self-motivated 9     rehabilitation which was undertaken not at the direction
10    of -- under supervision by any Court, by on its own 11    initiative. This also lends strong support to the 12    conclusion that imprisonment was not necessary to deter 13    Gall from engaging in future criminal conduct or to 14    protect the public from his future criminal acts. That's 15    the Supreme Court speaking and, again, your Honor, I 16    respectfully submit that applies in its entirety to Mr.
17    Ferraro's situation. A situation, your Honor, that he's 18    demonstrated he's -- he's earned, if Your Honor so saw 19    fit, to impose a non-custodial sentence in this case.

20                    It's a -- a sentence range of 18 to 24 21    months. I know it's indicated by the guidelines, this is 22    unique in the sense that Your Honor has had a very clear
23    picture of Mr. Ferraro's life before and very clear 24    picture of after to see as he sits here today a -- is a 25    custodial sentence necessary to protect the community, is

          Lisa L. Tennyson, CSR, RMR, FCRR
          UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT - NDNY

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 he a danger to the community, does it appear that he's 2 recognized the wrongfulness of his conduct and will not 3 engage in any future criminal conduct, I respectfully 4 submit all of that is answered in the affirmative.

5           Needless to say, your Honor, that if you 6 impose a non-custodial sentence on Mr. Ferraro, he would 7 still be under the supervision of the Court, that, as the 8 Supreme Court pointed out, okay, with certainly -- Gall 9 Court would certainly undergo the very severe 10 consequences of any violation of any probation or 11 supervised release sentence.

12           Your Honor, for all of those reasons I ask 13 that you impose on Mr. Ferraro a non-custodial sentence 14 in this case. I think it's -- he has earned the 15 consideration of the Court to continue on with his life
16 the way he has, form a new life, rehabilitate himself 17 from the time of the offense until now. Thank you.

18           THE COURT: Mr. Ferraro, would you like to 19 be heard, sir, before I impose sentence?

20           THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21           THE COURT: Please stand up and go ahead.

22           THE DEFENDANT: First of all, I start off
23 by saying I'm -- I'm -- how sorry I am for the crime I
24 committed. How disgraceful I am. As to the Court, I'm 25 sorry to the Court, I'm sorry to you, the government, but

Lisa L. Tennyson, CSR, RMR, FCRR
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT - NDNY

U.S. v RONALD FERRARO - 09-CR-467

1 I also want to let you know how ashamed I am of the crime 2 that I committed. When my dad died I was the eye and the 3 father figure of the family and I let everybody down.
4 First, I let my mother down after she lost her husband, 5 now I -- I -- I have a chance that she can lose the last 6 two people, that she has lost me and my brother.

7 Second of all, I let down my wife, my 8 fiancée who is supposed to get married and have kids and 9 put a hold -- life on hold because of a stupid mistake I 10 made. And he also told you about what happened with our 11 family and she needs me more than ever and now I have a 12 chance to believe in her. I'm all she has left.

13 But most of all, I'm really ashamed. That 14 kills me every day. You don't understand how much it's 15 killed me deep inside, as I described my father's, 16 brother's life. Anyway, from what you said, there's -- 17 it was the biggest mistake of my life and even though it 18 was the biggest mistake of my life, it really made me 19 have perspective on life and what I need to do and the 20 right thing, to do the right thing, and I just put my 21 head down, ashamed, always ashamed of everybody.

22 So hard to even tell someone you got 23 arrested and people look at you different and just don't 24 put my head down, straight to work and the thing that I'm 25 a little proud of in the last three years I've built

Lisa L. Tennyson, CSR, RMR, FCRR

1     these two companies together, one with my brother, that 2     I'm really doing successful. I mean, I work 7 days a
3     week, 12 hours a day. I mean, some days I'm not. I'm 4     working a lot.

5                 Besides that, what's -- the reason for the 6     -- I'm proud of it is because of the future for my 7     family, and I'm on the right track and basically I want 8     to let you know that this would never, ever, ever happen 9     again and you -- you don't understand how much this 10    killed me inside. And I have disgrace from my mother, my 11    wife, my whole family, my community, my colleagues and, 12    like I said, most of all, my brother. That's it.

13                THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Ferraro. Thank you.

14                The Court has received and considered all 15    the pertinent information, including, but not limited to, 16    the pre-sentence investigation report, submissions by 17    counsel and factors outlined in 18 U.S.C., Section 3553
18    and the Sentencing Guidelines.

19                Court finds that the total offense level
20    is 15, criminal history category is 1, and the guideline 21    imprisonment range is 18 to 24 months. The Court is 22    going to impose a non-guideline sentence. The reasons 23    for the non-guideline sentence are the lack of prior 24    criminal history, the fact that the -- the defendant has 25    done an exemplary job of pretrial release over the last

1 two-plus years, almost three years, and the continued 2 success of his business, support of family and what 3 appears to be aberrant behavior and the long course of 4 other good deeds within the community.

5 The Court also has to recognize the 6 seriousness of this criminal offense, the fact that you
7 were involved in an international drug conspiracy, drugs 8 come across the United States border into the United 9 States for retail delivery in New York, the fact that -- 10 the consistency of sentencing with regard to the 11 guideline range.

12 Therefore, the Court -- based upon your 13 plea of guilty to count two of the indictment, it is the 14 judgment of the Court that you are hereby sentenced to 15 the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 8 16 months. Upon your release from confinement you are 17 sentenced to a term of supervised release for three 18 years. While on supervised release you shall not commit 19 another federal, state or local crime; you shall comply 20 with the standard conditions that have been adopted by 21 this Court and you shall comply with the following 22 special conditions:

23 The first six months of the pretrial
24 release you will serve intermittent confinement six 25 months of weekends and in a local facility; you shall

1 also participate in a program for substance abuse which 2 shall include testing for drug and/or alcohol use and may 3 include inpatient or outpatient treatment. The program
4 shall be approved by the United States Probation Office.

5 The defendant shall contribute to the cost
6 of any evaluation, testing, treatment or other monitoring 7 services rendered in an amount to be determined by the 8 probation officer based on your ability to pay and 9 availability of third-party payments. The defendant 10 shall refrain from the use of alcohol while under 11 supervision. Defendant shall forfeit to the United 12 States all right, title and interest in all property 13 listed in the forfeiture order. Court finds that based 14 upon your financial obligations you do not have the 15 ability to pay a fine and therefore, no fine is imposed.

16 The defendant shall pay a special
17 assessment of $100 which is due and payable immediately.
18 Both parties have a right to appeal this sentence in 19 certain limited circumstances except for any waivers 20 included in the plea agreement. You are advised to 21 consult with your attorney to determine whether or not an 22 appeal is warranted. Any appeal must be filed within 14 23 days of the date of the judgment being filed in this 24 case.

1 on pretrial release, Court shall allow you a surrender
2 date in this case. You shall surrender to the custody of 3 Bureau of Prisons by reporting to an institution
4 designated by them by 2 P.M. on Tuesday, November 27th, 5 2012. You shall contact the U.S. Marshal of this 6 district who will advise you of the institution 7 designated.

8 Mr. Ferraro, I want you to understand the 9 incredible break that you're getting here and there is 10 going to be a similar sentence for your brother but I'm 11 going to stagger that sentence. He's not going to be 12 reporting for custody until sometime in July of next year 13 so your business can continue, and my understanding is 14 that you and your brother are in the business, at least 15 one business he's going to have to oversee both for you.

16 THE DEFENDANT: Okay. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: So that your mother will have 18 somebody -- one of you available to her at all times.
19 That's what we are going to do. And I think that -- 20 based on your prior life experiences, what you've 21 demonstrated on pretrial release, that you earned that 22 from the Court.

23 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Court feels that this sentence
25 is sufficient but not greater than necessary to reflect

1 the seriousness of this crime to serve justice as this 2 Court is required to do.

3 So, therefore, good luck to you. Contact
4 the Marshal's office. They will let you know where you 5 have to report.

6 MR. WOLF: Your Honor, one thing further.
7 Will the Court recommend to the extent the Bureau of 8 Prisons would determine that Mr. Ferraro wants to be 9 designated to the northeast, close to home as possible to 10 -- if he's eligible for a -- a camp prison, camp -- can 11 it designate to a camp as well?

12 THE COURT: Yes. I'm -- I'm not sure what 13 they do. I can recommend for the eight months that they 14 designate him to a facility as close to Metropolitan 15 New York area as possible and, you know, depending, I'm 16 not sure how they designate people but certainly there 17 isn't any indication of any violence or -- and weapons
18 involved in this particular drug conspiracy that I'm 19 aware of with regard to Mr. Ferraro or his brother, so, I 20 think they would designate them accordingly.

21 MR. WOLF: Thank you very much.

22 THE COURT: Thank you. Good luck. Before
23 you rest on this case, Mr. Gardner, I believe counts one 24 and four of the superseding indictment --

25 MR. GARDNER: Yes, your Honor. Government

1 moves to dismiss those counts at this time.

2 MR. WOLF: No, opposition, sir.

3 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Gardner, on 4 the government's motion, the Court will dismiss counts 5 one and four of the superseding indictment with regard to 6 Ronald Ferraro.
